

Our 2023 season officially kicked off at Eagle Vine Vineyards and Golf Club today. As opposed to the windy and rainy weather in March, the warm sun, cool breeze, and amazing views of the vineyard today definitely proved that rescheduling the tournament was the smart choice. There were 27 players today and below list the results of today's tournament for everyone's enjoyment. This year we have increased a number of the prizes and awards to give back available funds to our members.

Congratulations to all the winners!
